OneTrust Vendorpedia Chasing Services

YOUR PERSONAL QUESTIONNAIRE COLLECTIONS AGENCY, AT NO EXTRA COST

A New Approach to Risk Assessments

Assessing third-party vendors is a time-consuming endeavor. Creating the assessments, identifying the right contact to complete it, following up, reviewing responses, asking for evidence and clarification; all of these manual and repetitive tasks eat away at productivity. Many companies have decided to outsource this process to dedicated teams that are optimized to streamline the completion of third-party risk assessments. This enables their teams to focus on more strategic projects.

OneTrust Vendorpedia Chasing Services

For all Vendorpedia™ customers, OneTrust provides a value-added Third-Party Chasing Service that eliminates the back-and-forth communication challenges you experience when trying to get third parties to complete vendor risk assessments. At no extra cost, OneTrust will act as an agent on your behalf, working with your third parties and advising them throughout the entire assessment process. Vendors self-attest to the validity of their responses, with automated validation and remote or onsite audits are also available.

LESS WORK	GREATER EFFICIENCY	FASTER RESULTS
Offload time-consuming, assessment-related tasks to our agents to free up your resources	Enable our agents to streamline assessment completion without any work in between	Assess more third parties in less time as your dedicated OneTrust agent pursues your vendors

How It Works

Trained OneTrust Vendorpedia agents follow a detailed methodology when engaging third parties, eliminating the burdens you typically face during the assessment process. We make it simple and operate behind the scenes, enabling you to see the status and results, without getting bogged down in the details.
